

Announcements

Announcement 1:

Mathematics Exams Postponed: The mathematics exams scheduled for next week have been postponed to the following week. The new date will be communicated soon. Please encourage your children to continue their preparations.

Announcement 2:

Science Project Deadline Extended: The deadline for the science project has been extended by one week. The new submission date is now Friday, July 12th. This extension will allow students more time to complete their projects thoroughly.

Announcement 3:

Reading Assignment Reminder: A reminder that the reading assignment for Language Arts is due this Friday. Students should ensure they have read the assigned chapters and completed the accompanying worksheet.

Announcement 4:

Field Trip Permission Slips: Please return the signed permission slips for the upcoming field trip to the museum by Monday, July 1st. This will help us finalize our arrangements.

Announcement 5:

Parent-Teacher Conferences: Parent-teacher conferences will be held next month. Sign-up sheets will be available online starting next week. We encourage you to book a slot to discuss your child's progress.